

UCSI Emergency Food Relief Service

In partnership with ASRC funded by The Department of Health and Human Services DHHS, we will be delivering emergency food relief service.

The service is primarily for the people seeking asylum and refugees but is not limited to them, people and families from wider communities who have been affected by COVID 19 or who are vulnerable and facing any sort of hardship are eligible for the emergency food relief.

To further support the vulnerable members of community during this hard time, in cooperation with UCSI, Casey Multi-Faith Network will be providing warm clothes and resources to the members of community.
